

The Heart of the Matter

12. The Corinthians were measuring “truth and success” by how powerful, influential, and articulate someone was. How is that idea communicated today?

13. What needs to happen in your heart and life for you to be able to have access to the spiritual things of God?

14. From verse 16, what can you do to exercise “the mind of Christ” more fully in your life?

15. What promises from God in this passage are the most influential, important, or meaningful to you?

The Immutability (Unchangeability) of God 1 Corinthians 2:6-16 For the Week of May 17, 2020

Getting Started

1. What insight, principle, or observation from this weekend’s message did you find to be the most helpful, eye-opening, or troubling?
2. How well did you keep secrets when you were a child? How about since then?
3. What person in your circle of friends and family has the most wisdom?

Digging Deeper

4. From the references to wisdom in this passage, what differences do you see between human wisdom and God's?

5. From verses 7 and 9, what is secret about God's wisdom?

6. According to Job 28:1-28, where can wisdom be found? How should we value wisdom? Why don't we value wisdom the way we should?

7. Why did the Apostle Paul quote from Isaiah 64:4 to make his point in verse 9? What does God promise to those who love Him in verse 9?

8. Philosophers were respected as people who could search out deep truths; in contrast how does Paul say the truth of the Gospel is discovered in verses 10-13?

9. Why have these things been hidden from the "natural man/ the man without the Spirit"? (Matthew 11:25-30; Matthew 13:10-17)

10. Why is the Spirit so necessary for us to be able to understand spiritual things? How is the Spirit of God made available to us?

11. In verse 16 Paul quotes from Isaiah 40:13 by saying that we don't have access to "the mind of the Lord", but then how is it that he can say that we can have access to the "mind of Christ" in his concluding thought?
