

Marriage and Divorce

Matthew 5:31-32

6/27/21

Pastor Mark Shoemaker

Recap from last week:

Disclaimers:

- A. What this message is not.
- B. The purpose of a working theology of divorce and remarriage.
- C. The theology we are looking at today has been long debated.
- D. This theological topic, while important, is not top level importance.
- E. We will likely disagree.
- F. This is a reality for many here today.
- G. This sermon will not have all the answers.

A Theology of Divorce and Remarriage

1. Marriage according to God:
Marriage is a holy covenant, where one man and one woman are brought together as ONE by God for a lifetime.
2. Divorce is not always sinful.

3. Divorce is allowed on the grounds of sexual immorality.

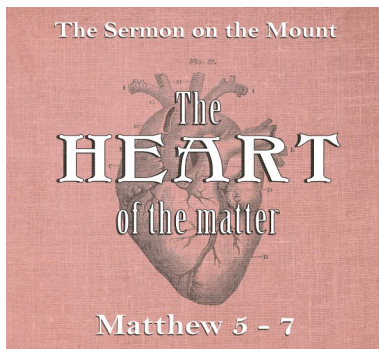

4. Divorce is allowed when an unbelieving spouse separates from a believer.

5. Remarriage is permitted in both circumstances where there are grounds for divorce.

6. How do we interpret 1 Corinthians 7:10-11?

7. What about abuse and other situations of abandonment?

How does a theology of divorce and remarriage help you know and love God better?
