

Habakkuk 1:1—11

02/6/21

Paul Jordan

Questioning God's Justice

Our world is filled with much pain and suffering.
Why doesn't God do something?
How do we respond when God seems to be silent?

We Cry Out To God For _____ And _____,
Habakkuk 1:1-4.

We complain when we cry for help but God doesn't _____ V 1a.

We complain when violence arises but God doesn't _____ us V 1b.

We complain when sin increases but God doesn't _____ V 2.

We complain when destruction, violence and conflict intensify but justice is _____ V 3-4.

God Hears And _____ Our Cries In His _____ And
In His Way, Habakkuk 1:5-11.

God's ways are _____ V 5.

God's ways include the...
_____ V 6,

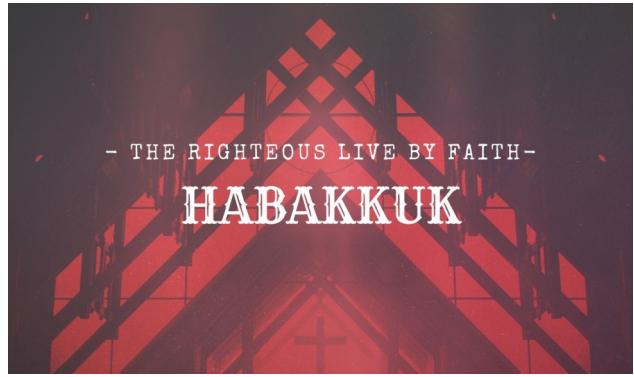

_____ V 7,

_____ V 8

and violent V 9-11

Anchors For Our Souls

- It takes strong faith to keep calling out to God when He doesn't immediately answer.
- Observing sin, violence and injustice should move us to prayer and action.
- God's ways are not our ways.
- God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble.
