

HAITI ADVENTURE

Join Pastor Paul on a mission's trip to Haiti. It's an excellent way for you to observe firsthand what the Lord is doing in an extremely needy area of the world.

Who? All are welcome, ages 18 & older

When? July 11-18, or if you're able July 9-24

Where? In Pinion, on the scenic mountain side

For those staying two weeks: a 3 day trip to minister in Santiago, Dominican Republic

Activities? Work with orphans & other children, medical clinic, work projects, assist in classes of all ages

Cost? $1,400 ($900 flight & $500 food & gas) plus spending money (souvenirs & meals while traveling)

Shots? Recommend Covid, Hep A & B, tetanus malaria medicine

What an exciting opportunity we have to show the love and care of Christ for people who are hurting and struggling to survive. Each trip I take, I'm overwhelmed with how the Lord opens up incredible doors for us to minister to children, students and adults. We reach out in serve at the orphanage, grade school, high school, university and to pastors as well as leaders in over 120 churches. The Haitian people are so appreciative of our efforts. We do all we can to enhance the ministry of Pastor Jephthe and Baptist Mission.

Your life will never be the same again! Contact me for more details and to sign up.

Pastor Mark Shoemaker-

JOHN 10:1-10 - I Am the Door

bethel community
CHURCH

Context: The blind man healed (John 9)

Division revolves around these questions: Who do we listen to? Who do we follow? Is Jesus a sinner to be silenced, a prophet to be heard, or the son of man to be worshiped?

John 10:1-6: The sheep don't follow a stranger, they know the voice of their shepherd

John 10:7-10: Jesus is the only way to salvation, the only means of abundant life

“I am the gate” clarifies the division of that day:

- Who do we listen to? The voice of the shepherd
- Who do we follow? The one who is the door to salvation, he is the only way
- Is Jesus a sinner to be silenced? No, he is to be worshipped, just as the man born blind worshipped in John 9:38

Taking this home:

- Whose voice are you listening to for leading in your life?
- What would you identify as “abundant life” today for you?
- What does the truth behind Jesus’ words, “I am the door”, change for your life this week
